

Patient Acknowledgement of Sparks & Favor Policy Regarding Cord Blood Collection for Public Banking

Your signature below confirms that we have provided you with a copy of patient FAQ #172—Cord Blood Banking from the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists AND Sparks & Favor’s “Cord Blood Banking—What Expectant Parents Need to Know.” We inform you that we do not endorse or partner with any public or private cord blood bank. If you wish to donate to LifeCord Blood Bank, you will need to arrange collection directly with that company or with Brookwood hospital staff. Your physician will only collect the cord blood sample. We will not be involved with signed-consent process. We have no control over what tests may or may not be performed on your baby’s cord blood or your blood. We accept no responsibility for notifying you of the results of any such test or any other information resulting from your cord blood donation. We accept no responsibility for the security of personal identifying information or sensitive health information you may provide to a third party or authorize us to provide.

Please acknowledge that you understand our policy regarding cord blood collection for public banking by signing this form in our office along with your physician or nurse.
